

PRUDENTIAL SUREPATHSM INCOME CURRENT RATES

Effective Date: 12/15/2019

The Prudential SurePath Income Fixed Indexed Annuity is a single premium, long-term contract designed to help you secure your financial future. In return for your premium payment, you receive certain benefits. SurePath Income is designed to provide guaranteed lifetime income and protect your principal from loss. It also gives you the opportunity to grow your future income without exposure to negative stock market performance.* Your money can grow by earning interest based on the performance of a stock market index, such as the S&P 500®, but it is not invested in the stock market or specifically in the indices allocated. You can choose a combination of indicies and terms, each with a cap rate OR a participation rate, as available.

We are issuing this rate sheet to provide the initial rates and percentages that we are currently offering on the SurePath Income Fixed Indexed Annuity. These rates are set by Prudential Annuities and are current as of the effective date listed above. Renewal rates may be different than those listed below. Rates are subject to change at any time. For the latest rates, please visit www.prudential.com/surepathincome-rates.
